

Methodological discussion points

- What non-statistical issues are raised by bringing systematic reviews together in an overview?
- Why might it be useful to combine systematic reviews into an overview of reviews?
- What limitations can you identify in relation to the methods used in this overview of reviews?
- What are the strengths of indirect comparisons?
- What are the limitations of indirect comparisons?
- What would you want to see to increase your trust in the findings of this overview?